Spartanburg Water Receives Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Humanitarian Award

Spartanburg Water was recognized by the City of Spartanburg at its MLK, Jr. Unity Celebration last night as the business recipient of the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Award for Humanitarian Excellence. Sue Schneider, General Manager, accepted the award on behalf of Spartanburg Water System and Spartanburg Sanitary Sewer District.

This award is presented to organizations that exhibit commitment to diversity by meeting the following criteria:

- Strongly emphasizes the inclusion of female and minority group members
- Contributes organization or company related resources to the community in order to improve the human condition
- Generally, promotes positive relations among diverse people in the community through slogan, programs, advertising, etc.

Spartanburg Water has been a proud sponsor of the MLK, Jr. celebration, as well as other activities that promote diversity and the well being of the community for many years. The organization strives to value and utilize the diverse talents and skills of its employees, as well as those of the various stake holders in the communities that it serves.

Spartanburg Water strongly believes the organization has a responsibility to contribute to the overall good of the community, and enhance the community's desired quality of life. Beyond providing important water and wastewater services, this includes being a diversity champion and business partner in the community.

Spartanburg Water – An Award Winning Utility.
